Vowels That Change Word Meaning

In many cases, by simply changing one vowel in a word, the word takes on new meaning.

See how many words you can create by changing one vowel in these words.

1. cap ____________________________
2. cape ______________________________________
3. hot ______________________________________
4. sad ______________________________________
5. rain ______________________________________
6. pan ______________________________________
7. cup ______________________________________
8. pear ______________________________________

© This worksheet is from www.teach-nology.com